

Toxic Girl (String Arrangement)

Kings of Convenience

In the sky the birds are pullin' rain
In your life a curse has got a name
Makes you lay awake all through the night
That's why She's intoxicated by herself
Everyday she's seen with someone else
And every night she kisses someone new
Never you You're waitin' in the shadows for a chance
'Cause you believe at heart, that if you can Show to her what love is all about
She'll change She'll talk to you with no one else around
But only if you're able to entertain her
The moment conversation stops, she's gone
Again
