Lifeboat

The Elms

When I am scared, You are my Father
When I cant breathe, You are the air
When I cant swim, You are a lifeboat
When Im tired and weary, You are thereAnd my times get high, my times get low
You always let me in on all that You know
I could give You time alone and then
Youd only come and ask me, Where have you been?When I am weak, You are my shoulders
When Im poor, You give me a hand
And when I cant swim, You are a lifeboat
You carry me to dry landAnd my times get high, my times get low
You always let me in on all that You know
I could give You time alone and then
Youd only come and ask me, Where have you been?When I'm not sure, You are my maker
Speaking words that keep me aware
When I cant swim, You are a lifeboat
When Im tired and weary, You are thereAnd my times get high, my times get low
You always let me in on all that You know
I could give You time alone and then
Youd only come and ask me, Where have you been?
