

Beggar

Hundredth

It didn't mend
Leave it to me
And you

Because you didn't know what else to do You were begging for attention

The loudest in the room You confused my silence

My solitude for weakness

But I can see right through

You were starving for acceptance inside

And when you cracked, Your [?] nothing about

Ignorance displayed like a trophy you're proud of

You stagger around [?] in your mouth

Spit them out

You were begging for attention

The loudest in the room You confused my silence

My solitude for weakness

But I can see right through

You were starving for acceptance inside

And when you cracked, And I'll see through [?] calloused

But I can see right through

You cracked and now you're at the bottom

[?] in the mouth

You're at the bottom

Too deep to spit them out

You're at the bottom

Trying to make your way back

Then your desperation is there for me

x2

You confused my silence

My solitude for weakness

But I can see right through

You were starving for acceptance inside

And when you cracked,
