42 In Chicago

Merle Kilgore

Oh its 42 in Chicago,
81 in L.A.,
But its 10 below and freezing,
Since you went away,
Showers are expected,
No sunshine in sight,
And your not here to hold me,
These cold, lonely nights,
I was listening to the news and weather,
Trying to get you out of my mind,
Heard about all the world's problems,
They're not thinking yours and mind,
And when they gave the weather,
Here's the forecast that I find,
Oh its cold in your heart,
Cloudy in mine,
Oh its 42 in Chicago,
81 in L.A,
But its 10 below and freezing,
Since you went away,
Showers are expected,
No sunshine in sight,
And your not here to hold me,
These cold, lonely nights,
Oh its 42 in Chicago,
81 in L.A.,
But its 10 below and freezing,
Since you went away,
Showers are expected,
No sunshine in sight,
And your not here to hold me,
These cold, lonely nights.
