Grip Inc.

so swift, so silent, anonymous uncontrolled of vile fantasy predator, stalking his victim lusting for power, embracing horror searching to fill the black emptiness with perversioncamillian, cruising market places seeking the ultimate, sexual pleasure gaining trust, of the curious, of the frail, of the innocent returning, time after time, to abdust our sacred offspring leaving trails of devastation, showing no remorse wicked eyes do smilepaedophileloved ones snatched from open windows suburban securities false calm shattered learning institutes infiltrated praing on infants innocent young onesfear the stranger, he will rip them, tear them to piecestorture og the blackest nature every orifice filled with semen all cultures have to fear
