Here You Are

The Go-Go's

Such a hard life lesson, yeah it's strange
Never trusting things will be okay
But even if you leave
Nothing's gonna change'Cos if you lose control
And burn a bridge too far
No matter where you go
Here you are, here you areFall down, screw up, get up, run away
I know what's behind the things you do and say
So just look at me
And I'll show you what I seeWhen you lose control
And burn a bridge too far
No matter where you go
Here you are, here you areThe love you seek, the love you own
Is it so fleeting? Are we really all just alone?
This moment in space and time
Is all that we can knowAnd if you lose control
And burn a bridge too far
No matter where you go
Here you areIf you lose control
And burn a bridge too far
No matter where you go
Here you are, here you are
(In my heart)Here you are, here you are
(In my heart)
Here you are, here you are in my heart
