

The Day We Broke Up

ZE:A FIVE

English Translation:

Yeah~ We back again

We back with It ain't over ZE:A!

The day we broke up

Oh no Oh I'm missing you After you left, I couldn't do anything

To me, that spot can only be filled by you

How are you? Is life treating you well?

I am getting over you a little, forgetting you little by little It's okay if I do this, right? It's okay if I forget you?

But why do I keep feeling like I shouldn't?

But still, I want to try forgetting you, I want to try living without you The day we broke up, I cried a lot

Because my heart ached so much after we fought

Those words were all lies that I said because I was angry and mad

I can't believe that we broke up

The fact that you left me doesn't feel like reality

Come back to my side - I did that because I was angry and mad

On the day we broke up I couldn't fall asleep and I tossed and turned all day

After staying up for a long night, I opened my eyes to a gloomy morning

A world without you seems a bit different

If time passes, maybe I'll be able to smile even if I see you It's okay if I do this, right? It's okay if I forget you?

But why do I keep feeling like I shouldn't?

But still, I want to try forgetting you, I want to try living without you The day we broke up, I cried a lot

Because my heart ached so much after we fought

Those words were all lies that I said because I was angry and mad I can't believe that we broke up

The fact that you left me doesn't feel like reality

Come back to my side - I did that because I was angry and mad

On the day we broke up

Why is it sadder that you are getting erased from my memory?

You're okay without me, right? I will forget you now The day we broke up, I cried a lot

Because my heart ached so much after we fought

Those words were all lies that I said because I was angry and mad I can't believe that we broke up

The fact that you left me doesn't feel like reality

Come back to my side - I did that because I was angry and mad

On the day we broke up Romanized:

Yeah~ we back again

We back with, it ain't over. ZE:A!
