

Royal Pain

Serenity

If so royal is my name
A blessing in disguise
No more suffering- no pain- these days
Waiting for my own golden crown
I can't feel a difference
This low life ends without a tear
Don't say goodbye
All I longed for feels like nothing
Of any meaning in my life
When the night falls
My graceful heart shows
What it tried to hide from you
Fears of breakdown, safe appearance
And I will never lose my faith
I'll rise even higher
No more count in this cold land- they're gone
Austrian empire they named- this reign of men
Bloodline will stay alive- my heir
I'm leaving someday
No reason to turn down this emotion of misery
All I longed for feels like nothing
Of any meaning in my life
When the night falls
My graceful heart shows
What it tried to hide from you
Fears of breakdown, safe appearance
And I will never lose my faith
I'll rise even higher
I belong to a historic reign
My legacy will be recalled
By all the people in this world
I live on
All I wanted feels like nothing of worth
All I longed for feels like nothing
Of any meaning in my life
When the night falls
My graceful heart shows
What it tried to hide from you
Fears of breakdown, safe appearance
And I will never lose my faith
I'll rise even higher
higher.....
