In Avernus

Nothingface

Hate is nothing new
Murderers watching every step
Ignorance; oblivious to all the evidence
Repent; for all that were the innocent
Forget; so we can all restHate is the end of time
We will all see it in our lifetime
We all will die violently
Its painted in the sky
We can all see it, but ignore it
And live our livesThe fear of dying
Finds us no matter where we hide
Ourselves hide someplace in hell
In spite of living
The dead man know where we can hide away
Far awayHate is the end of time
We will all see it in our lifetime
We all will die violently
Its painted in the sky
We can all see it, but ignore it
And live our livesWe all enjoy the blood
It calms the pain within
Just to see it callWe never wanted this
We never saw the risk
We never wanted thisIf we could only see past the shit and learn the truth
Maybe someone could have adept and show us how to change things
We invented the way to tear a (?)
And we all wonder why someone wants to kill usHate is the end of time
We will all see it in our lifetime
We all will die violently
Its painted in the sky
We can all see it, but ignore it
And live our livesHate is nothing new
Murderers watching every step
Ignorance; oblivious to all the evidence
Repent; for all that were the innocent
Forget; so we can all rest
