

True Confessions

Bananarama

If you want love, come and get it
Well, that's alright with me
And if you think that's tough, forget it
'Cause there's no guarantee
(No guarantee) Well, the dreams won't last forever
And that's how it should be
I'm only living for your pleasure
Your real life fantasy
(Real life fantasy) True confessions can reveal
(True confessions can reveal)
(True confessions, true confessions)
False impressions disappear
(False impressions disappear) True confessions, you come back
(True confessions you come back)
(True confessions, true confessions)
These obsessions of your mind
(These obsessions of your mind)
Of your mind If I lead you to the water
Oh, will you take a drink?
Emotions that you torture
Make you stop and think
(Make you stop and think) True confessions can reveal
(True confessions can reveal)
(True confessions, true confessions)
False impressions disappear
(False impressions disappear) True confessions, you come back
(True confessions you come back)
(True confessions, true confessions)
These obsessions of your mind
(These obsessions of your mind)
Of your mind True confessions can reveal
(True confessions can reveal)
(True confessions, true confessions)
False impressions disappear
(False impressions disappear) True confessions, you come back
(True confessions you come back)
(True confessions, true confessions)
These obsessions of your mind
(These obsessions of your mind)

Of your mind These obsessions of your mind

(True confessions)

These obsessions of your mind

(True confessions)

Of your mind

These obsessions of your mind

(True confessions)

These obsessions of your mind

(True confessions)
