

Ancient Spirit of the Underworld

Carpathian Forest

Overhead the thunder cracked and roared
And when it ceased the deathlike silence
Chilled my marrow and bones
The need to feel dead was killing himLike death itself
 Evil is found in the earliest
 Oldest and the most dreadful
 Memories of humanity
Eternally feared by gods primitive menPale visions, death-pale they were all
 Still cursed, haunted and alone
 Killing woman, children and men
Sparing neither age nor sexA place where reality is worthless
 And all you want is to be left alone
 They grind the land like corn
 Showing no mercy
 Spilling the blood like rain
 Devouring their flesh and sucking
Dry their veins...The undead leaves their graves
 In misty transformations
 You see half-visible bodies
 Floating through the night
The ancient spirits of the underworld[REPEAT VERSE 1]All the trees were lifeless and dead
 And there were no birds singing
 The reign of man is over
Drained for all its powersHe saw their starving lips shake
 With a horrid grin gaped wide
And the corpse lies on the cold hill side
 His spirit is carried away
 By the northwinds into eternity
