

I do Believe

Mallu MagalhÃœes

In my own way, I'm a believer
In my own way, right or wrong
I don't talk too much about it
It's something, I keep working on
I don't have too much, to build on
My faith has never been that strong
There's a man in that old building
    He's a holy man, they say
    He keeps talking about tomorrow
    While I keep struggling with today
    He preaches hell, fire and brimstone
        And heaven seems so far away
        I do believe in a higher power
        One, that loves us one and all
    Not someone to solve our problems
        Or to catch me when I fall
    He gave us all a mind to think with
        And to know what's right or wrong
    He is that inner spirit that keeps us strong
        In my own way, I'm a believer
        But not in voices, I can't hear
        I believe in a loving father
        One, I never have to fear
    That I should live life at it's fullest
        Just as long as I am here
