Stop & Erase

Selena Gomez

You think you know me so well
You put me down it builds you up
You're kicking me around
You just can't get enough

And all your friends
Surround you
Without them by your side,
You start to show your weakness
It's something you can't hide

Yeah yeah!

[Chorus]
Well, stop and erase
Cause I'm gonna wipe that smile
Off your know it all face
Laugh while you can
Yeah live it up
And read my lips,
The the joke is on you
I figured it out
You're all about walking tall
On the people you knock down
Well, stop and erase
Cause I'm gonna wipe that smile
Off your know it all face

I'm waking up,
I'm feeling
What I was scared to feel before
I got my eyes wide open
Won't take it anymore
All the lies and teasin'
Yes I could never be that cool
You had them all believin'
But now that's through

Yeah yeah!

[Chorus]

Count down,
The tables have turned
Better wise up,
You got a lot to learn
Cause you're alone now

[Chorus: x2]
