

Head Trauma

SNEW

burning up with fever temperature will rise the way it's climbing up the scale i don't think that it's wise to leave me unattended i need you round the clock looking at my vital signs i need another shot i need an institution, one with padded walls
i'm in a bleeding fox hole,
a casualty of war
head trauma " i'm lying on my back head trauma " it's a sneak attack doctor send the nurse in i need intensive care i don't think i can calm myself it's more than i can bare i'm feeling kinda sea sick i need attention soon loosen up the bandages and open up the wound i need an institution,
a casualty of war
head trauma - it's a sneak attack head trauma " there's something you can do head trauma - i'm a lonely shade of blue
