

Painkillr

Erika Jayne

Tumbeling down, walking around the room
Waiting around for you
I don't know what else to do
Thinking about how we got of the tracks
If you're ever coming back
You already found someone new
Gave you more than one chance, can let the past be the past
You played with my heart, you'd dropped it to fast
Now I know the naked truth, and it's not the best side of you
Fool me once, fool me twice, it's a final goodbye
I hate to say it, but I'm waisting my time on you
And now we're threw
yeah eh yeah
Of all the lies you told me, I love you was my favorite
Of all the lies you told me, I love was my favorite
Eh, eh
I love you was my favorite
eh, eh
I love you was my favorite
My favorite lie
My favorite lie
No one to fight, alone in the dark all night
I know that I can, get by
I make my own look tonight
You're not gonna win
You're not gonna take me down
You're not gonna make me drown
I'm better of on my own
Gave you more than one chance, can let the past be the past
You played with my heart, you'd dropped it to fast
Fool me once, fool me twice, it's a final goodbye
I hate to say it, but I'm waisting my time on you
And now we're threw
Of all the lies you told me, I love you was my favorite
Of all the lies you told me, I love was my favorite
Eh, eh
I love you was my favorite
eh, eh
I love you was my favorite
eh, eh
I love you was my favorite
My favorite lie
Three words, one big lie

Left me in the curse, but you'll never hear me cry
I should have seen it coming
I know I should have seen it coming Three words, one goodbye
Left me in the curse, but you'll never see me cry
I should have seen it coming, but now you get to see me running Of all the lies you told me, I love was my favorite
Of all the lies you told me, I love you was my favorite Eh, eh
eh, eh
eh, eh
