

Cold Blooded

ZHU

Such a cold blooded love
I'm afraid of your touch
Such a cold blooded love
But I love it too much You had me on your list
The target of your mission
All these times you would be missing me
Is really guilt admission, baby
The game we're playing is addictive
And you know I'll risk it all to win it
'Cause I know you better than you think I do Lately, I get this feeling that you're watching me
Even when I'm fast asleep, or am I crazy?
The paranoia's sitting in so deep
I don't know what to believe
Tell me what you found
A lunatic in my head spying
I hope you know that psychedelic love
Can cause a great excitement, I've tried it Such a cold blooded love
I'm afraid of your touch
Such a cold blooded love
But I love it so much
Such a cold blooded love
I'm afraid of your touch
Such a cold blooded love
But I love it too much You had me on your list
The target of your mission
All these times you would be missing me
Is really guilt admission, baby
The game we're playing is addictive
And you know I'll risk it all to win it
'Cause I know you better than you think I do No one knows you're cold blooded, psycho
Waiting for your next move
No one knows you're cold blooded, psycho
Waiting for your next move, baby No one knows, no one knows
No one knows, no one knows
