Dogs Die In Hot Cars

I love Lucy
I love Lucy Liu
Yes, I love her twice as much as youNow there's Jolie
Angela Jolie
Could you ever look as good as sheOhh, I just want someone that would come home
Hey now, hey now, hey now
Why don't you come, why don't you come homeNow there's Zeta
Catherine Zeta-Jones
Yes, her body is perfectly tonedOo, when I meet her
We'll be mates, you'll see
And I'll be the guy the guys want to beOhh, I just want someone that would come home
Hey now, hey now, hey now
Why don't you come, why don't you come homeAnd just one star jump out of magazines, into my arms
Hey now
We took it too, we took it too farYou're watching watching you, watching me
You're watching watching you, watching me
You're watching watching you, watching me
You're watching meYou're watching, watching you, watching me
You're watching, watching you, watching me
You're watching, watching you, watching me
You're watching meYou're watching watching you, watching me
You're watching watching you, watching me
You're watching watching you, watching me
Stop watching meOh, I just want someone that would come home
Hey now, hey now, hey now
Why don't you come, why don't you come homeAnd just one star jump out of magazines into my arms
Hey now
We took it too, we took it too far
