Rosie Lowe

You up and leave this city to find more
You follow your love, but he's not worth fighting for
He's lost your trust, he's let you down
Once your man's still fishing 'round it's time to go
Once it's gone, a losing gain
I'm sure he's good but don't you play you heart'll fall
You up and leave this town, where you had it going on You'd disagree but I believe you were really starting to grow
Why don't you try it on your own?
Always had a man in tow who don't deserve your love
They seem to suck and bring you down
I wonder how'd you be without cause you're miles above
But I can't watch you kill yourself
Nicole
If only you saw what the rest of us, love
Nicole
I can't watch you kill yourself
Nicole
If only you saw what the rest of us, love
Nicole
Won't you leave your pride, pack it up and give it in?
I know you want his love, but we'll give you more than him
He's lost your trust, he's let it down
Once your man's still fishing 'round it's time to get out and go
And now it's gone, a losing game
I'm know he's good but don't you play, your heart'll fall
No I can't watch you kill yourself
Nicole
If only you saw what the rest of us, love
Nicole
I can't watch you kill yourself
Nicole
If only you saw what the rest of us, love
Nicole
