She the reason why my clothes stay pressed while I pack and go

And she the only one at the airport when I'm back from the road

Took me home, two ribs on the stove, my favorite how you know?

Hit the couch and she already had the game on, Tivo cause it ended hours ago

She screamed when kobe hit the game winning jumper, ran through the house like a playground in summer

She wrapped her legs around me and I spunned, kissed her forehead and said that I love her

She ran the water for me got down in the ligerne, and said that she gon model for me perfect way to start the day.[Chorus - Shanell]

Who gon, who gon, who gone love you better than me?

Who's gonna kiss ya, who's gonna touch ya baby better than me?

Yeahhh, can't nobody

Nobody, nobody, nobody, nobody baby, can't nobody

Nobody, nobody, oohh nobody baby[Verse 2 - Ben J]

I don't think anybody made, you the only who got it made

Like everytime I see you, our love gets stronger by the days

Take you to different states, every day a different place

You never heard or seen that race, I'm different people different faces

You wanna be kind, mommy you mine

I get to work like overtime

I'm past that up high, I know you wanna met someone who you can fit

And so I step up to the plate, who run this shit[Chorus - Shanell]

Who gon, who gon, who gone love you better than me?

Who's gonna kiss ya, who's gonna touch ya baby better than me?

Yeahhh, can't nobody

Nobody, nobody, nobody, nobody baby, can't nobody

Nobody, nobody, oohh nobody baby[Shanell]

?....if you want to, if you want to oohh

And baby you can go if you think this is..?

Baby where you should be, but don't nobody know you like me

If it takes you?

And baby you can go, but like I said before, can't nobody[Chorus - Shanell]

Who gon, who gon, who gone love you better than me?

Who's gonna kiss ya, who's gonna touch ya baby better than me?
