

Ruby

Kaleida

Ruby in my arms admired
Stepping out we feel the dawn
Only in his arms inspired
To get me moving on the floor
I can feel the constellation
As it takes my hands for shore
Give the moves we are all waiting
I want more, more, more
I'll be ready, looking, looking for you!
I'll be ready, waiting, waiting for you!
You can hold my heart in your hands
And tell me that's be alright
You can keep my love in your thoughts
Never give up to the night
Ruby he's a movie shaker
Shaking it across the floor
Hope I catch his undivided
I want more, more, more
I'll be ready, looking, looking for you!
I'll be ready, waiting, waiting for you!
You can hold my heart in your hands
And tell me that's be alright
You can keep my love in your thoughts
Never give up to the night
You can hold my heart in your hands
And tell me that's be alright
You can keep my love in your thoughts
Never give up to the night
All I wanna do is get you back on the floor
All I wanna do is get you back on the floor
You can hold my heart in your hands
And tell me that's be alright
You can keep my love in your thoughts
Never give up to the night
