Lessdmv - Acoustic pages

Step inside into deepest dream do you know how it feels to get buried alive?
if i look in your eyes could I see the light could I see the darkness?
Love this is hard to say but I miss you.

Seasons change
will you be back someday? cause it feels strange now that i'm not with you If i shout to the sky would you hear my heart?
would you hold me tight? my love this is hard to say but i miss you

I feel you, I feel you deep inside somewhere there in the sky You photograph will stay forever love right here with me.

The coldest winter might take us to heaven
The pages of an autumns love in bloom Our promises had been betrayed by angels our prophecy was like daying rose.
i miss you
