

Piece Of Glass

Caedmon's Call

Can't believe that I did it again
Wake me up from this nightmare
'Cause this monster is filling me up, filling me out
Everyday I live a bit less; one night leads to another
Even if I went back they would'nt recognize me or criticize me
Who are you that lies when you stare in my face
Telling me that I'm just a trace of the person I once was
'Cause I just can't tell if you're telling the truth or a lie
On you I just can't rely. after all you're just a piece of glass Still this nightmare's all mine, when I call him he answers
I can tell him when to come, when to stay
Sometimes I'm weaker than he is, is he just letting me win?
He can tell me when to come, when to stay
Who are you that lies when you stare in my face
Telling me that I'm just a trace of the person I once was
'Cause I just can't tell if you're telling the truth or a lie
On you I just can't rely. after all you're just a piece of glass
Don't talk, listen
Hold me tighter
Stay with me just for a while
Until the sun shines stay with me
Just give me one more day
Who are you that cries when you stare in my face
Telling me that I'm just a trace of the person I once was
'Cause we're not the same, you're just a picture of me
You're gone as soon as I leave; you've lived my life for me
And you're no more than a piece of glass
You're no more than just a piece of glass

Songwriters

DANIELLE YOUNG, DEREK W. WEBB
Published by

Lyrics © MUSIC SERVICES, INC. Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>