It's All About You

Status Quo

I'm standing in a crowd on a one way street see me howling at the moon
I can't decide to park or ride
I never know what the hell to do Can't be going slow, better make a move I better show I'm in, no time to lose Woah, it looks like nothing I can do
And I remember what you said back in December, it messed my head and every day, in every way
it's all about you
I've been in a strange place for someone new it doesn't make me feel so good I can't hide the hurt inside
I never knew it could be this way
I musn't let it show, keep it to myself
No-one really cares I'm with someone else
Woah, it looks like nothing I can do
And I remember what you said
back in December, it messed my head
and every day, in every way
it's all about you
I musn't let it show, keep it to myself
No-one really cares I'm with someone else
Woah, it looks like nothing I can do
And I remember what you said
back in December, it messed my head
and every day, in every way Oh I remember when we met and we surrender, we soon forget
and every day, in every way
it's all about you
