

Wake of Infinity

Witherscape

welcome the glow of the morning shedding the black of the night open his home to the sick and the brave who are drowning in the frightthe hour is closer for this place is alive the power of healing as he prays worship the pain awayand his soul she will hauntin the wake of construction as the patients arrive with a feeling of pride on this glorious day there's a shine in their eyes and their trust is before you when the tortured remain and the silence will haunt the divine
and as the maddening dies she appears as a beautiful signhere was the wake of infinity
cries
for the breath of divinitythe calming warm beside him she makes her presence known this angelic gift from high above the shadows will betray him fate to overcome within her grace her love will always shinewhen the tortured remain
she appears as a beautiful sign here
for the breath of divinityfear for the sake of divinity death
to the dawn of infinity
