

Help Me (She's Out of Her Mind)

Stereophonics

Dancing
In the mirror
You could see her from a mile man
She was alright
She looked right over her shoulder
Right at me
I was falling through the floor now
She came over to me Help me, oh help me
She's out of her mind
Help me, oh help me
Somebody tonight Laughing, all night
She could tell a funny story
She could stay up all night
She was someone to remember
She was black and white
We did it on a sunbed
And she did it right Help me, oh help me
She's out of her mind
Help me, somebody
Oh help me, tonight Prancing, around a low lit light
Running rags over her shoulders
Red chili lights
She drink you underneath the table
She hold you heavenly tight
Slap you right across ya white face
She make you cry like a child Help me, oh help me
She's out of her mind
Help me, oh help me
Somebody, tonight Crazy, out of her mind
You want to shoot her want to love her
You can't make up your mind
You want to tell her all your stories
Want to open your mind
You want to show her how your heart works
But she ain't got the time You're fighting, all the time
There's nothing working, nothing gaining
Just a waste of time
You're trying hard to remember
All the beautiful times

But yer clouded by the bullshit
All of the time Loving, on a Saturday night, making love under a blanket
With the telly on loud
You want to show her that you love her
But there's sex on ya mind
Makin' love from watching movies
I think I'm doin' it right Help me, oh help me
She's out of, her mind
Help me, so help me
Somebody tonight
