Rash Reflection

Skinny Puppy

notice that phrase thorough vileness of his delivery ninty seven cars and free love kiss the masters feet poor soul searching all this seen deeper stillness tranquility eat the food drug passive response spoiled putty in the masters hand all this seen is obscure enough kiss the masters feet sure that vision is a vagrant holiday redlective silence chooses one stance hidden behimd throne of freedom in the field of the black sheep all this seen is obscure enough confess all the truth seekers see for the first time cult grows from a rolls royce dream preach from the back of a limosine feel the rash burn notice that phrase through the vileness how sweet feel the rash start to burn
