

Chasing You (feat. Soseh)

Capital Cities

Broken down on the side of the road
It'd be nice if you could help me out
I drove for miles to the place I was told
I could find you in the shadow of doubtBut you weren't there
(I was there)
You weren't there
(I was there)Chasing you
It's the only thing I want to do
But now I'm facing you
What the hell am I supposed to doIs it foolish to follow the rules
When everybody's following you
You gave directions that made no sense
And now I'm fucking stuck in a loopBut you're not there
I was there
You're not there
I was thereChasing you
It's the only thing I want to do
But now I'm facing you
What the hell am I supposed to doYou must think I'm a mannequin
Because I only come alive in my Sunday best
But somehow I'm on the run again
So you probably shouldn't hold your breath
Don't train yourself to be a fool
I only want to stick around if you pass the test
Don't cross the line, stop chasing time
'Cause in time you'll find that I-I-I'm just
Chasing you
Chasing youChasing you
It's the only thing I want to do
But now I'm facing you
What the hell am I supposed to doI'm chasing you
It's the only thing I want to do
But now I'm facing you
What the hell am I supposed to doChasing you
Chasing you
