

God

Seven Nations

God

(Kirk McLeod) No I never drink my poison

No I never let you see

No I never drink my poison

Unless it's good for me

No I never ponder confusion no

Or sit around and wait to see

Or watch the outcome of a certain situation

I had in mind for eternity Yeah it's up to me

What will be is up to me

No I never make a choice unless it's up to me

And I never give a reason No I never sink my teeth in

No I never take a bite

No I never sink my teeth in unless I feel the right

No I never play the jokerman

Sit around and wait to see

Or watch the outcome of a certain situation

I had in mind for eternity Yeah it's up to me

What will be is up to me

No I never make a choice unless it's got to be

And I never give a reason It's up to me; It's up to me

What will be is up to me

No I never make a choice unless it's got to be

And I never give a reason
