

Footsteps (Acoustic Version)

Pop Evil

I've been counting all my steps
All my nos just turned to yes
Silently, I must confess
My troubled history
That's washed away all my sins
Starting over once again
This is where it all begins
It's right in front of me
Down is not where I belong
This aching heart won't turn to stone
There's a fire inside these bones
It was meant to be
I see the world still full of light
How could I ever be so blind?
I still haven't lost my fight

That haunts me in my sleep I feel like waking up, I've had this dream before

I'll take these footsteps, go higher, go higher
I've walked an empty mile, wore down this lonely soul
I'll take these footsteps, go higher, go higher
(Woo-hoo, woo-hoo, woo-hoo) higher, go higher
(Woo-hoo, woo-hoo, woo-hoo) higher, higher I know only time will tell
If all the cards will treat me well
'Cause this hand that I been dealt
Keeps me wondering
So now here I turn the page
I've learned to silence all my rage
Tell me who can really say

What will tomorrow bring? I feel like waking up, I've had this dream before

I'll take these footsteps, go higher, go higher
I've walked an empty mile, wore down this lonely soul
I'll take these footsteps, go higher, go higher
(Woo-hoo, woo-hoo, woo-hoo) higher, go higher
(Woo-hoo, woo-hoo, woo-hoo) higher, higher I'll find you so far away
I'll find you after all
I'll find you so far away

I'll find you after all (I'll find you so far away) I feel like waking up, I've had this dream before

(I'll find you after all) I'll take these footsteps, go higher, go higher

(I'll find you so far away) I've walked an empty mile, wore down this lonely soul

(I'll find you after all) I'll take these footsteps, go higher, go higher (I'll find you so far away) I feel like waking up, I've had this dream before

(I'll find you after all) I'll take these footsteps, go higher, go higher
(I'll find you so far away) I've walked an empty mile, wore down this lonely soul
(I'll find you after all) I'll take these footsteps, go higher, go higher I feel like waking up, I've had this dream before
I'll take these footsteps, go higher, higher
