

Here I Stand

Madina Lake

My hands shake 'cause today I know you're gonna break my heart
And my life without you in it is a life that's not worth living
I'll be strong but I wish I was someone else
Anyone but me tonightHere I stand, all alone tonight
And I wish I was strong enough to breathe
Without you in my life
And I wish I was anyone but meSo I'll start to pretend I'm okay but you should know by now
That my life is smoke and mirrors, one thing is crystal clear
That I'm the one wishing I was someone else
Anyone but me tonightHere I stand all alone tonight
And I wish I was strong enough to breathe
Without you in my life
And I wish I was anyone but meWhere do we go?
Where do we go?Inside, I start to fall apart
And I'll pretend I'm holding on
I guess I'll bleed in silence
I guess I'll bleed in silenceHere I stand all alone tonight
And I wish I was strong enough to breathe
Without you in my life
And I wish I was anyone but meAll alone tonight
And I wish I was strong enough to breathe
Without you in my life
And I wish I was anyone but me
