

Crowning

Toad the Wet Sprocket

 Been waiting to find
 You could've been happier given the time
 If he'd make up his mind
 You'd give yourself to anybody
 Who would cross that lineAnd it was never a question
 He was crowning for repair
 You'd give him love and affection
 You couldn't keep him thereGet over, regrets
 While you were sleeping with the angels
 He was under the bed
 And the more skin that you shed
 The more that the air in your throat will linger
 When you call him your friendAnd it was never a question
 He was crowning for repair
 You'd give him love and affection
 You couldn't keep him thereStaring at a cold little hand
 Reading fault lines of a shell of a man
 You were waiting for a word from above
 Wouldn't you know it?
 No, answer ever did comeAnd it was never a question
 You were crowning for repair
 You'd give him love and affection
 You couldn't keep him thereAnd it was never a question
 You were crowning for repair
 You'd give him love and affection
 You couldn't keep him there
