

Let's Go Creeping

Ihascupquake

I've got a new job,
Perfect for a girl like me.
I mostly have to sit around,
And watch this big TV.

My only problem's being alone,
Now what's this that I see.
OH MY GOSH is that someone?
I think we've company!

Hip hip hooray,
Gonna make a friend today.
Well, it's night time I don't care,
I think someone's over there?

Oh, oh it's just you.

Oh what to do.

Back to work we go now!

Who's that creeping,
Around these dark corridors?
It's ok there's no need to be afraid,
There's only been a few murders.

Here we go now.

Walk the halls now.

I'm being followed.

There's no one there.

Round the corner.

Nearly there now.

Just keep walking.

Don't be afraid.

Who's that creeping,
Around these dark corridors?
I don't want to be here no more,
I don't want to be here no more,
Nooo WOHHOHH
(Are you there?)

(How can you hear us?)

*Clock chimes*

I've quit my new job,
It was no fun you see.
You can keep that shirt and hat,
I'm driving home for tea.

A Do do do do do do do do di,
La la la la la la laa LAAAAHH!

Let's go creeping,
Kick down the doors,
While Red just sits and snores,
Unaware that we are coming for him.

*Evil laugh*
