Decayer

blessthefall

Sever the ties or it's all for nothingWithout a warning out of site
All these thoughts keep plaguing my mind
You saw this coming, you're out of time
So you can rot with the ones you left behindNowhere to run, had this feeling
Right from the start
Another lie that I could not forgive
And now the rope's around your neck
Well it never was, yeah it never was
Well I hope you're good at starting over
Yeah it never was
And it never is going beYou act like nobody knows
If you're not at fault
Then who is in control?
Don't you try to put this on me
Burn your bridges
Buried beneath
This can't be all for nothing
Sever the ties or it's all for nothingNowhere to run, had this feeling
Right from the start
Another lie that I could not forgive
And now the rope's around your neck
Well it never was, yeah it never was
Well I hope you're good at starting over
Yeah it never was
And it never is going beOne by one
You reap what you sew
The thought of revenge is all that I know
One by one
You reap what you sew
I'm calling you out
Just to watch you chokeOne by one
The thought of revenge is all that I know
One by one
I'm calling you out
Just to watch you chokeNowhere to run
Had this feeling
Right from the start
Another lie that I could not forgive
And now the rope's around your neck

Well it never was, yeah it never was
Well I hope you're good at starting over
Yeah it never was
And it never is going be
Well it never was, yeah it never was
Well I hope you're good at starting over
Yeah it never was
And it never is going beThis can't be all for nothing!
