It's like a kiss between Heaven and Hell
Before the process, we all got a soul to sell
Tell yourself lies you don't have to
Just cuz it's said don't mean it's true
If you love this, we can find some love for you
And if you drink this, we can fix that too 'Cause this feels like Devil and an Angel fell in, fell in love
Just the ride, don't you right a wrong?!
'Cause this feels like Devil and an Angel fell in, fell in love
Just the ride, don't you right a wrong?! They could tell something we're going through
So raise your glass up cuz we need a few!
Sad as a wolf we need to be,
And right here with you is all I need
If you love this, we can find some love for you
And if you drink this, we can fix that too 'Cause this feels like Devil and an Angel fell in, fell in love
Just the ride, don't you right a wrong?!
'Cause this feels like Devil and an Angel fell in, fell in love
Just the ride, don't you right a wrong?! We're all sinners
We're all saints,
With this love we'll reach the gates!
We're all sinners
We're all saints
This feels like Devil and an Angel
Just the ride, don't you right a wrong?! 'Cause this feels like Devil and an Angel fell in, fell in love
Just the ride, don't you right a wrong?!
'Cause this feels like Devil and an Angel fell in, fell in love
Just the ride, don't you right a wrong?! Devil and an Angel fell in love!
