

Blackmagic

T.S.O.L.

No, I don't don't don't don't don't believe I believe in magic
I don't believe in love
'Cause I read your starlines
I didn't see no love 'Cause I saw your black cat
I saw your witch crafts
I don't need your 666 pack
I don't need your love Well, you left yourself naked
For me and my friends to see
Your iced over graveyard
Supposed to put a spell on me I believe in magic
I don't believe in love
We don't rate your starlines
I didn't see no love I saw you walkin' downtown
With a man in black yesterday
No ifs, ands or buts
It doesn't really matter what you say 'Cause I saw your black cat
I saw your witch crafts
I don't need your 666 pack
I don't need your love I believe, I believe, I believe
In black magic
I believe, I believe, I believe
In black magic I believe, I believe, I believe
In black magic
I believe, I believe, I believe
In black magic I believe, I believe, I believe
In black magic
I believe, I believe, I believe
In black magic
