Brothers And Sisters

Twin Atlantic

Are you still out there
Are you still out there
Because enough is enough
I'm finished with love
And i have the guts to say
That i still careCan you hear me
Can you hear me
I'm over the rush
I'm divided and lost
I'm not giving up
I'm not giving upI'm talking to my brothers and sister
I'm miss the conversation between us
There's nothing wrong with being a dreamer
So where are you nowPlease don't Drift off
And leave me here
In a sea of weird
Don't be fake, mate
Cause you'll lose that love
You'll forget the point and the power of wordsAre you still out there
Are you still with me friend
Because enough is enough
I wont take the brunt
I'm not giving up
I'm not giving upI'm talking to my brothers and sister
I miss the conversation between us
There's nothing wrong with being a dreamer
So where are you now
I'm talking to the liars and cheater
The ones who held the truth to deceive us
There's nothing wrong with being a dreamer
So where are you know
Where are you knowAre you still out there
Are you still out thereI'm talking to my brothers and sister
I miss the conversation between us
There's nothing wrong with being a dreamer
So where are you now
Where are you nowMy brothers and sister
I miss the conversation between us

There's nothing wrong with being a dreamer
So where are you now
Where are you now
I'm talking to the liars and cheater
The ones who held the truth to deceive us
There's nothing wrong with being a dreamer
Where are you know
