

He Gets Me High

Dum Dum Girls

I put so much into your smile
It gets me by, it gets me high
So much weight upon your voice
I have no choice, I have no choice
(Have no choice)I hold my breath till you come back
The picture's black, the picture's black
I promised not to call you back
But heaven knows I can't keep it
(Can't keep it)Oh words don't fail me now
I must win you over somehow
To this side of the dream.
You've brought me to my kneesI will save this night's confession
It's my obsession, I learnt no lesson
Who cares what real life I miss
Your electric faith with a cosmic kiss
(Cosmic kiss)Could not help it if I tried
His lips alone give the breath of life
I do not care when, how or why
He gets me high, he gets me high
(Gets me high)Oh words don't fail me now
I must win you over somehow
To this side of the dream.
You've brought me to my kneesOh to be your destiny
Is all I ever want to be
Oh to be your destiny
Is all I ever want to beHe gets me high, he gets me high
He gets me high, he gets me high
He gets me high, he gets me high
He gets me high, he gets me high
He gets me high, he gets me high
He gets me high, he gets me high
