Count Me In

Jools Holland; Ruby Turner

Could there be a different ending to the same old story
'Cause you're not the first to say, you're gonna be there for me
I need to know what's in your heart, can you finish what you start
How can I be sure, I won't be sorry
If heartaches and tears and shadows of doubt
Are part of the deal, you can count me out
But if you're talkin' about a game I can win
You can count me in
When you tell me you're the one I've always needed
You don't know how much I'm wanting to believe it
But I've heard it all before, now I'm needing somethin' more
A promise is no good if you can't keep it
If heartaches and tears and shadows of doubt
Are part of the deal, you can count me out
But if you're talkin' about a game I can win
You can count me in
If heartaches and tears and shadows of doubt
Are part of the deal, you can count me out
But if you're talkin' about a game I can win
You can count me in
You can count me in
