Marcus Schossow

Oh what did I say?
She's all shook up
Lost in the summer, man
We're burning up
The time don't show
When the sun gets carried
The tide curves off your body
Oh you'll stay with me
I, now I will show you
It's how I lie
When no one told you
Oh what did I say?
She's all shook up
Vision by the seaside
We move
But I don't know
When the fire gets hazy
The flames roll down and off her body
Oh you'll stay with me
I, now I will show you

It's how I lie
When no one told you
So ride, Sherry, ride, Sherry, ride
I will show you
We'll go in the night
Wondering why no one told you
Now I can walk the stones of the shoreline
And taste the ocean salt when the cold shines
My words are rolling soft down your south side
I, now I will show you
It's how I lie
When no one told you
So ride, Sherry, ride, Sherry, ride
I will show you
We'll go in the night
Wondering why no one told you
Why, you know it goes, you know it goes
Why, you know it goes, you know it goes

Why it goes
