Worst Enemy

Cheap Sex

Here we are again divided as we fall
With no direction going forward
Now destruction heeds its call
With missiles aimed across the ocean
And dying of disease
Say hello Armageddon and goodbye humanity.[Chorus:]
'Cause we are our own worst enemy (we are our own enemy, we are our own)
we are our own worst enemyIgnoring all the warnings we just focus on today
While all the signs point to disaster
Theres got to be a better way
I swear this is the end and you can see it everywhere
So open your eyes now, its time you start to care.[Chorus]
