One Last Time

Elise Estrada

It'd be easier if there was someone else
I might understand if we had a fight
And we're lying here but you're somewhere else
I don't wanna see what you don't feel
So just turn out the lightI know you tried but your heart ain't gonna fake it
If it ain't love, there's no way I can take it
So exposed, I might as well be naked
And I've been praying but I just can't make you love meAnd it burns my heart that you don't feel the flame
No, I just can't make you love me
So hold me like you mean it
And I'll pretend to feel it one last timeDon't say a word, baby, please don't speak
Just hold me close and let me make believe
I don't wanna hurt till the morning break
Just pretend it's not the end
To spend one last time with meI know you tried but your heart ain't gonna fake it
If it ain't love, there's no way I can take it
So exposed, I might as well be naked
And I've been praying but I just can't make you love meAnd it burns my heart that you don't feel the flame
No, I just can't make you love me
So hold me like you mean it
And I'll pretend to feel it one last timeI know it's no one's fault but it's just not meant for you
And you can't make your heart feel the way I feel for you
It's not right to keep me hanging on
Just give me one more night before we both move onBut I just can't make you love me
And it burns my heart that you don't feel the flame
No, I just can't make you love me
So hold me like you mean it and I'll pretend you feel itWell, I just can't make you love me
And it burns my heart that you don't feel the flame
No, I just can't make you love me
So hold me like you mean it and I'll pretend to feel it
One last time, ho
