

Sane

Fear of Men

I possess nothing
I'm free from fear
I'm a monument to myself
I see you drowning
Half flesh half stone
With ambitions that drain your health

You hear me
You run from me
You hear me
I know
You hear me
You run from me
You know
You know
You know

It's in your eyes when you're perfectly sane
It's in your blood when you can't bear these
It's in your eyes when you're perfectly sane
It's in your blood when you can't bear these

heavy thoughts again

You recreate me
Cast off my power
I was willing to be weak for you
But you're unholy
You're not yourself

You know
You know
You know

It's in your eyes when you're perfectly sane
It's in your blood when you can't bear these heavy thoughts again

Oh if you could give back, all the days that I lost to you

I'd surrender the way that you begged me

Now I need you to know, how your body reflects in mine

Now I'll never return to the fantasy

It's in your eyes when you're perfectly sane

It's in your blood when you can't bear these heavy thoughts again
