Grey Skies

Milezo

Grey skies seem right,
An encore to last night.
Your song played on, on, on
While I fall with the bed.
She wrapped me tight
And said it'll be alright.
Just sleep and the night'll pass on by,
Close your eyes, yeah
'Cause every touch is satisfied,
Every kiss is right on time,
Every time I say I miss you tonight,
Grey skies seem right,
Grey skies seem right.
Laying still on your side
The ache I feel can trust the smile.
The sense you left with me
Is fillin' up my mind
So I close my eyes, yeah

Every touch is satisfied,
Every kiss is right on time,
Every time I say I miss you tonight,
Grey skies seem right.
It's bitter-sweet this pain,
As though I just left you the other day.
I'm going half insane
Talkin' to my bedding for hope again.
'Cause every touch is satisfied,
Every kiss is right on time,
Every time I say I miss you tonight,
Grey skies oh yes
Every touch is satisfied,
Every kiss is right on time,
'Cause every time I say I miss you tonight,
Grey skies seem right,
Grey skies seem right,
Grey skies seem right.
Grey skies seem right.
