CURL UP and DIE

Subhumans

You fucking lied to me
And I trusted you
I nearly loved you - Christ!
The look in your eyes
As you told me lies
And you nearly cried
So I did it for you
Cos you asked me toLike a stab in the back
The facts all crack
Buildings fall down
And God gets the sack
My world falls apart
As you tear up my heart
Reality blinds
and the rest of mankind
Can all go to Hell
That includes you as well
Well I don't really mean it
But that's how I feel it
But I don't know why
So I curl up and die
