Love Costs

Love Costs

I donâ€™t know why I stay around,
She makes me high just to bring me down.
If not for her where would I be?
And what will become of me?

She always smiles and she seems so nice,
But itâ€™s plain to see she has her price.
It all comes down to a profit and a loss.
One way or another, love costs.

Does she mean what she says to me?
Cause I know that she doesnâ€™t say nothing for free.
Yeah I know that itâ€™s all just a part of the deal,
And she canâ€™t imagine the way I feel.

Sheâ€™s the prettiest girl Iâ€™ve ever seen,
And she sends me home when sheâ€™s picked me clean.
It all comes down to a profit and a loss.
One way or another, love costs.

Love can be easy or so unkind.
It can make you feel better or go out of your mind
And she canâ€™t imagine the way I feel
Cause I know that itâ€™s all just a part of the deal.

She always smiles and she seems so nice,
But itâ€™s plain to see she has her price.
It all comes down to a profit and a loss.
One way or another, love costs.
