

War Games

The Spudmonsters

Words and music by Stephen Stills

Can you stop your instincts
Can you man your thought control, sir?
Will you give the last command

Or lie to a good soldier

I'm a doubter

I'm a fool

Let me be -

All that I am

Chorus:

I am not so sure

What you want me for

Either your machine

Is a fool, or me ...

Now there is no time to wait

No time to think it over

Take the path, believe the math

You'll tell me when it's over

I'm a fighter

I've a question

Won't you answer me?

I have earned the right to know

And tell you what I see

Chorus:

I am not so sure

What you want me for

Either your machine

Is a fool, or me ...
