You Are Not Needed Now

Townes Van Zandt

Well, the birds were talking all at once
And the old man moving down his lawn
He didn't look like much too bad a guy
And I was thinkin' hang on, man, something's wrong

Your blues they do seems to be gone

Heaven ain't bad but you don't get nothing doneLay down your head a while You are not needed now, you are not needed nowWell, Allison laid a hex on me

And every time I turn around

It's swimming through the air above my bed

I told Miss Higgs and she said fine

As long as you're back in your room on time

I keep you clean and the girls will keep you fedLay down your head with mine You are not needed now and we got things to doWell between the blankets made of wool

The trains go by every half an hour

And the body can get no restin' done, that's true

So I spend my time as best I can

Thinkin' big and making plans

And wondering where them trains are rolling toLay down your head poor boy Feel how the ground does move and hear how them drivers singWell, goodbye friends, it's time to close

Everybody knows that's the way it goes

And where was it you lived in case I'm ever there

Well, three doors down and two behind

And it gets a little bit out of hand sometimes

Don't let it fool you into thinkin' you down careLay down your head and fly And I'll quietly pass you by you won't even see me goWell if I thought about it long enough

I just might make some kind of move

Watchful lies are too hard on the soul

With the smoke house just across the way

And it's fog upon the light of day

That would be hard but comin' up with where to goLay down your head poor boy
And feel how the ground does move, hear how them drivers sing
And what now, my darling one, go find a little fun

You are not needed now
