

The One You Love

Joey Newman

save it for the one you love
the one you love, oh oh

Bad situation
when you're feeling all alone you're hit by temptation and you're heading for the phone the stories are running but it feels like a lie she thinks you're really something but you feel hollow inside

Well the one you love

Sentimental question for someone in the past a cloudy reflection of why it didn't last personal satisfaction taking one more look a deadly reaction has got you on the hook

Don't be fending folding money when you're out on the street and you come home to your honey mmh, throw the waiting change at her feet

The one you love

the one you love
save it, save it
the one you love

the one you love
the one you love
the one you love
the one you love
save it

If you love him youâ€™ll keep my commandments
save it
