Dead End Road

J.J. Cale

(feat. Eric Clapton)Well I feel like I'm running down a dead end road
Yes I feel like I'm running down a dead end road
I need some someone to tell me which way I ought to goSay good by to the morning hello weekend time
Say good bye to the morning down the road I am flying
If I look way beyond me I'll be getting way behindI can't seem to catch up distance keeps falling away
I can't seem to catch up distance keeps falling away
Makes no difference where I go dead end road every wayI feel like I'm running down a dead end road
Well like I'm running down a dead end road.
I need some one to tell me which way I ought to go
