Go Back (feat. Damon Albarn)

Tony Allen

when you can see the same reflections of city lights but you are far away to see all the sadder livesand the runaways what am i gonna do with you if you go back you run away what am i gonna do with you if you go backwhen the harder monster times switch off the ligths and the waiting room is empty of everyonedoes anyone what am i gonna do with you if you go backdoes anyone what am i gonna do with you if you go backdoes anyone see you left out all the rockswhen the only way home is a sudden stop on the backside field of view it's a sadder dayand anyway
what am i gonna do with you if you go backdoes anyone
you left that all the rock you made yourself a crossdoes anyone see you gotta go backwhat am i gonna do with you if you go back
